

Evacuated or assisted British nationals from Afghanistan (use this category only if the academic year you are paying fees for starts on or after 1 August 2023)

The requirements for this category were different in academic years that started before 1 August 2023. So it is important you also look at the category titled 'Evacuated or assisted British nationals from Afghanistan (use this category only if the academic year you are paying fees for starts before 1 August 2023)', if you started before 1 August 2023.

This category is only for students who are starting a course on or after 1 August 2022.

In order to qualify for 'home' fees under this category, all of the following criteria (a) to (d) must be met:

(a) on the first day of the academic year you are paying fees for (unless you are being assessed for the first academic year of your course, in which case use instead the day on which the first term of the first academic year actually begins) you must be one of the following:

- British Citizen
- British Overseas Territories Citizen
- British National (Overseas)
- British Overseas Citizen
- British Subject, under the British Nationality Act 1981
- British Protected Person, under the British Nationality Act 1981

(b) you were either:

1. evacuated from Afghanistan by or on behalf of the UK, a NATO member state, Pakistan, Uzbekistan, Tajikistan, Iran or Qatar during the period from 14 August 2021 to 28 August 2021; or
2. assisted by or on behalf of the UK after 28 August 2021 but before 6 January 2022, to leave Afghanistan

(c) you must have been ordinarily resident in the UK and Islands since you were evacuated from or otherwise left Afghanistan

(d) you must be ordinarily resident in the UK on the day on which the first term of the first academic year actually begins (note this is a different date from the first day of the first academic year of the course)
