

Persons granted Calais leave to remain

(use this category only if the academic year you are paying fees for starts before 1 August 2023)

The requirements for this category will become a little more generous on 1 August 2023, so look at the category titled 'Persons granted Calais leave to remain (use this category only if the academic year you are paying fees for starts on or after 1 August 2023)' too, for information about fees for academic years that start on or after 1 August 2023.

This category is only for students who start their course on or after 1 August 2020.

In order to qualify for 'home' fees under this category, you must meet all of the following criteria:

(a) on the first day of the academic year you are paying fees for, you must be a person granted Calais leave, which means "a person who has extant leave to remain in the UK under paragraph 352J, 352K, 352L or 352T (Calais leave and "leave in line" granted by virtue of being a dependent child of a person granted Calais leave) of the immigration rules"; and

(b) you must have been ordinarily resident in the UK and Islands since you were granted such leave; and

(c) you must be ordinarily resident in the UK on the first day of the first academic year of the course; and

(d) Only if you are being assessed for an academic year starting before 1 August 2021: you must have been ordinarily resident in the UK and Islands for the full three-year period before the first day of the first academic year of the course.

Expiry date for Calais leave

The leave might have an expiry date. If the person makes an application to extend or change their leave before it expires, and that application is not decided before the expiry date, then immigration law dictates that they carry on being treated as a person with Calais leave while they wait for a decision to be made (and if their application is refused, then also while they wait for an appeal or administrative review of the decision). They count as a 'person with Calais leave' for fee assessment purposes during all of that time.

Becoming eligible

If you are granted Calais leave after the start of the course, you will be entitled to 'home' fees from the start of the next academic year, if you meet the requirements of this category or the category titled 'Persons granted Calais leave to remain (use this category only if the academic year you are paying fees for starts on or after 1 August 2023)'.